

Neuroendo Celebrate!

Celebrating our anniversary, nurturing our future

9 December 2019

Early Career Researcher Symposium Programme
Venue: Orangebox Gallery, The Lighthouse, Glasgow

Limited to 50 places
£50 symposium
£25 dinner
Travel grant available

10:30

Registration

11:00

Session: Energy homeostasis

Co-chairs: Jo Lewis, BSN ECR Representative,
Helen Christian, BSN Journals Secretary

- Plenary: Kate Ellacott, University of Exeter
- ECR Talk: Pablo Martinez de Morentin, University of Aberdeen
- ECR Talk: Alice Adrianensens, University of Cambridge
- ECR Talk: To be selected from abstracts

12:30

Lunch and poster session

14:00

Session: Biological Timing

Co-chairs: Rebecca Dumbell, BSN ECR Deputy Representative,
Stafford Lightman, JNE's first Editor-In-Chief 1989-1996

- Plenary: Fran Ebling, University of Nottingham
- ECR Talk: Ashleigh Wilcox, University of Bristol
- ECR Talk: Vincent van der Vinne, University of Oxford
- ECR Talk: To be selected from abstracts

15:30

Break

16:00

Session: Neuroendocrinology in Health and Disease

Co-chairs: Ashleigh Wilcox, BSN ECR Deputy Representative elect,
Julia Buckingham, JNE Editor-In-Chief 2004-2008

- Plenary: Dave Grattan, University of Otago, New Zealand
- ECR Talk: Chioma Izzi-Engbeaya, Imperial College London
- ECR Talk: TBC
- ECR Talk: To be selected from abstracts

17:30

Closing remarks

19:00

30th anniversary dinner

Venue: TBA

Early Bird Deadline - 2 September 2019
Register and submit your abstract today: bit.ly/NeuroendoCelebrate

Journal of Neuroendocrinology (JNE) is owned and managed by the British Society for Neuroendocrinology

#JNE30